

Lucky's Holiday Shopping Tips

Going shopping during the holidays can be super fun! But it's important to remember your Safety Superpowers. In a crowded place like the mall or a store it's important to activate your Super Attention. Knowing what's going on around you and where your trusted adult is at all times is essential to staying safe. It's also smart to activate your Super Listening skills. You should always follow directions given to you by a trusted adult.
